

A customer at a sub shop ordered "a small soda." The owner responded, "I'm sorry, sir, but we don't have small, just medium and large." (Both cost 99 cents)

The kicker came when the customer, a rather well-dressed business type, disappointedly said, "Okay, I guess I'll just have to have the medium then."

Idiots and Geography

After interviewing a particularly short-spoken job-candidate, I described the person to my boss as rather monosyllabic. My boss said, "Really? Where is Monosyllabia?"

Thinking that he was just kidding, I played along and said that it was just south of Ebonia. He replied, "Oh, you mean over by Croatia?"

Idiots in the Neighborhood

I live in a semi-rural area. We recently had a new neighbor call the local township administrative office to request the removal of the Deer Crossing sign on our road. The reason: Many deer were being hit by cars and he no longer wanted them to cross there.

Idiots and Computers

My neighbor works in the operations department in the central office of a large bank. Employees in the field call him when they have problems with their computers. One night he got a call from a woman in one of the branch banks who had this question: "I've got smoke coming from the back of my terminal. Do you guys have a fire downtown?"

Idiots Are Easy To Please

I was sitting in my science class, when the teacher commented that the next day would be the shortest day of the year. My lab partner became visibly excited, cheering and clapping. I explained to her that the amount of daylight changes, not the actual amount of time. Needless to say, she was very disappointed.

Idiots In Food Services

My daughter went to a local Taco Bell and ordered a taco. She asked the clerk for "minimal lettuce." He said he was sorry, but they only had iceberg.

Idiots Do Math

A co-worker was telling us about her sister who was coming to visit for the holidays. Someone asked how old her sister was, at which she paused, thought for a bit, and then answered, "She's half as old as I am, that's how I always remember."

So someone else (okay, it was me) said, "That's neat... So every year that you age, she only ages half a year?" My co-worker thought about that, and then said, "Oh, yeah, I guess it only works on even years."

Actual comments left on Forest Service registration sheets/comment cards by backpackers completing wilderness camping trips:

A small deer came into my camp and stole my bag of pickles. Is there a way I can get reimbursed? Please call.

Escalators would help on steep uphill sections.

Instead of a permit system or regulations, the Forest Service should reduce World-wide population growth to limit wilderness visitors' numbers.

Trails need to be wider so people can walk while holding hands.
Ban walking sticks in wilderness. Hikers with walking sticks are more likely to chase animals.
All the mile markers are missing this year.
Found a smoldering cigarette left by a horse.
Trails need to be reconstructed. Please avoid building trails that go uphill.
Too many bugs, leeches, spiders & spider webs! Please spray the wilderness to rid the area of these pests.
Please pave the trails so they can be plowed of snow in the winter.
Chairlifts are needed in some places so that we can get to wonderful views without having to hike to them.
The coyotes made too much noise last night and kept me awake. Please eradicate these annoying animals.
Reflectors need to be placed on trees every 50 feet so people can hike at night with flashlights.
Need more signs to keep area pristine.
A McDonald's would be nice at the trailhead.
The places where trails do not exist are not well marked.
Too many rocks in the mountains!

John Jones, the head of the company asked his manager to write a detailed employment review describing Bob Smith, one of his programmers.

1. Bob Smith, my assistant programmer, can always be found
2. hard at work in his cubicle. Bob works independently, without
3. wasting company time talking to colleagues. Bob never
4. thinks twice about assisting fellow employees, and he always
5. finishes given assignments on time. Often Bob takes extended
6. measures to complete his work, sometimes skipping coffee
7. breaks. Bob is a dedicated individual who has absolutely no
8. vanity in spite of his high accomplishments and profound
9. knowledge in his field. I firmly believe that Bob can be
10. classed as a high-caliber employee, the type which cannot be
11. dispensed with. Consequently, I duly recommend that Bob be
12. promoted to executive management, and a proposal will be
13. executed as soon as possible.

Signed ...
Jim

A MEMO WAS SOON SENT FOLLOWING THE LETTER:

John: That idiot was reading over my shoulder while I wrote the report sent to you earlier today. Kindly read only the odd numbered lines above (1, 3, 5, etc.) for my true assessment of him.

A woman named Linda went to Arkansas last week to visit her in-laws, and while there, went to a store. She parked next to a car with a woman sitting in it, her eyes closed and hands behind her head, apparently sleeping. When Linda came out a while later, she again saw the woman, her hands still behind her head but with her eyes open. The woman looked very strange, so Linda tapped on the window and said: "Are you okay?" The woman answered, "I've been shot in the head, and I am holding my brains in."

Linda didn't know what to do; so she ran into the store and called the paramedics. They had to break into the car. When they got in, they found that the woman had bread dough on the back of her head and in her hands. A Pillsbury biscuit canister had exploded, apparently from the heat in the car, making a loud explosion like a gunshot, and hit her in the head. When she reached back to find what it was, she felt the dough and thought it was her brains. She passed out from fright at first, and then attempted to hold her brains in!

3 workers, a Jew, an Italian and a Pole, all worked at a factory. Every day they noticed their boss left work a little early. So one day they got together and agreed that when the boss left that day, they'd all leave early too.

So they did. The Jew went home and went to bed so that he could get an early start the next morning. The Italian went home and cooked dinner. The Pole went home and walked to his bedroom - and found his wife in bed with his boss, so he quietly shut the door and left.

The next day the Italian and Jew are talking about going home early again. They asked the Pole if he wanted to, and he said, "No way - yesterday I almost got caught!"

British military Officer Evaluations

His men would follow him anywhere, but only out of curiosity.
I would not breed this officer.

When she opens her mouth, it seems that this is only to change whichever foot was previously in there.

He has carried out each and every one of his duties to his entire satisfaction.

This officer reminds me very much of a gyroscope - always spinning around at a frantic pace but getting nowhere.

When he joined my ship, this officer was something of a granny. Since then he has aged considerably.

This medical officer has used my ship to carry his genitals from port to port, and my officers to carry him from bar to bar.

Since my last report, he has reached rock bottom, and has started to dig.

She sets low personal standards and then consistently fails to achieve them.

He has the wisdom of youth, and the energy of old age.

This officer should go far - and the sooner he starts, the better.

Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson went on a camping trip. As they lay down for the night, Holmes said "Watson, look up into the sky and tell me what you see".

Watson said: "I see millions and millions of stars".

Holmes: "And what does that tell you?"

Watson: "Astronomically, it tells me that there are millions of galaxies and potentially billions of planets. Theologically, it tells me that God is great and that we are small and insignificant. Meteorologically, it tells me that we will have a beautiful day tomorrow. What does it tell you?"

Holmes: "Somebody stole our tent".

The Lone Ranger & Tonto are camping in the desert. They set up their tent, & are asleep. Some hours later, The Lone Ranger wakes his faithful friend. "Tonto, look up at the sky and tell me what you see."

"Tonto replies, "Me see millions of stars."

"What does that tell you?" ask The Lone Ranger.

Tonto ponders for a minute." Astronomically speaking, it tells me that there are millions of galaxies and potentially billions of planets. Astrologically, it tells me that Saturn is in Leo. Time-wise, it appears to be approximately a quarter past three. Theologically, it's evident the Lord is all-powerful and we are small and insignificant. Meteorologically, it seems we will have a beautiful day tomorrow. What does it tell you, Kemo Sabi?"

The Lone Ranger is silent for a moment & then speaks. "Tonto, you Dumb Ass. Someone stole our tent."

A fellow attended the 25th reunion of his university graduating class. On campus he had been regarded as a slow learner. He was last on the list when the students voted on 'the most likely to succeed.' However, he had fooled them all. He turned out to be a multi-millionaire: the richest man by far at that 25th reunion. Naturally, his former classmates gathered around him to pay tribute. And, as naturally, someone had to ask him how he had managed to do it. His modest reply was that he just guessed he had been lucky ... he had invented a little gadget which he found he could make for one dollar and sell for four dollars. And he said to them, "You'd be surprised at how that 3% adds up!"

There was an opening with the CIA for an assassin, a highly classified position hard to fill – a lot of background checks are involved before you can even be considered. After sending applicants through the checks, training and testing, they narrowed the possibilities down to 2 men and 1 woman - for only 1 position.

The day came for the final test. The CIA men administering the test took 1 of the men to a large metal door and handed him a gun. "We must know that you will follow your instructions no matter what the circumstances", they explained. "Inside this room, you'll find your wife sitting in a chair. Take this gun and kill her."

The man got a shocked look on his face and said: "You can't be serious! I could never shoot my own wife!" "Well", says the CIA man, "you're definitely not the right man for this job then."

So they bring the second man to the same door and handed him a gun, telling him the same thing. The second man looked a bit shocked, but nevertheless took the gun and went in the room. All was quiet for 5 minutes; then the door opened. The man came out of the room with tears in his eyes. "I tried to shoot her, I just couldn't pull the trigger & shoot my wife. I guess I'm not the right man for the job."

"No" the CIA man replied, "You don't have what it takes. Take your wife and go home." Now they're down to the woman. They lead her to the same door and hand her the same gun and tell her the same thing.

The woman took the gun and opened the door. Before the door even closed all the way, the CIA heard the gun start firing. One shot after another for 13 shots. Then all hell broke loose in the room. They heard screaming, crashing banging on the walls. This went on for several minutes - then all went quiet.

The door opened slowly, and there stood the woman. She wiped the sweat from her brow and said: "You guys didn't tell me the gun was loaded with blanks! I had to beat the so-and-so to death with the chair!"

A man in a bar has a couple of beers and the bartender tells him he owes $4. "But I paid, don't you remember?" says the customer. "Okay," says the bartender, "if you said you paid, you did."

The man then goes outside and tells the first person he sees that the bartender can't keep track of whether his customers have paid. The second man then rushes in, orders a beer and later pulls the same stunt. The barkeep replies, "If you say you paid, I'll take your word for it."

Soon the customer goes into the street, sees an old friend, and tells him how to get free drinks. The man hurries into the bar and begins to drink highballs when suddenly the bartender leans over and says, "You know, a funny thing happened in here tonight. Two men were drinking beer, neither paid and both claimed that they had. The next guy who tries that is going to get punched right in the nose."

"Don't bother me with your troubles," the final patron responds. "Just give me my change and I'll be on my way."

The Official Moron Test

(based upon typical graduation requirements at Harvard. Try to finish within 2 minutes. When you're done, count the number correct and see how you compare to others. Here we go ... morons unite!)

*** NO CHEATING ***

1. Is there a 4th of July in England? Yes or no?
2. How many birthdays does the average man have?
3. Some months have 31 days. How many have 28?
4. How many outs are there in an inning?
5. Can a man in California marry his widow's sister?
6. Take the number 30, divide it by 1/2, and then add 10... What do you get?
7. There are 3 apples - you take 2 away. How many apples are you left with?
8. A doctor gives you 3 pills and tells you to take 1 every half an hour...
How long will the pills last?

9. A farmer has 17 sheep. All but 9 of them die. How many sheep are left?
10. How many animals of each sex did Moses bring with him on the ark?
11. A butcher in the market is 5'10" tall. What does he weigh?
12. How many 3-cent stamps are there in a dozen?
13. What was the President's name in 1960?

So how do you think you did?

ANSWERS:

1. Is there a 4th of July in England? Yes or No?
...Yes. It comes right after the 3rd
2. How many birthdays does the average man have?
...One (1). You can only be born once
3. Some months have 31 days. How many have 28?
...Twelve (12). All of them have at least 28 days.
4. How many outs are there in an inning?
... Six (6). Don't forget there is a top and bottom to every inning
5. Can a man in California marry his widow's sister?
...No. He must be dead if it is his widow
6. Take the number 30, divide it by 1/2, and then add 10. What do you get?
... Seventy (70). Thirty (30) divided by 1/2 is 60
7. There are 3 apples and you take 2 away. How many apples are you left with?
...Two (2). You take two apples. Therefore YOU have TWO apples.
8. A doctor gives you 3 pills and tells you to take 1 every half an hour. How long will the pills last?
...One hour. If you take the first pill at 1:00, the second at 1:30 & the third at 2:00, the pills have run out and only 1 hour has passed.
9. A farmer has 17 sheep. All but 9 of them die. How many sheep are left?
... Nine (9). Like I said, all BUT nine die
10. How many animals of each sex did Moses have on the ark?
...None. I didn't know that Moses had an ark.
11. A butcher in the market is 5' 10 tall. What does he weigh?
...Meat - that is self-explanatory!
12. How many 3 cent stamps are there in a dozen?
...Twelve (12). How many eggs are in a dozen? TWELVE ... it's a dozen!
13. What was the President's name in 1960?
... George Bush. As far as I know, he hasn't changed his name.

So, how did we do?

A little old lady went to the grocery store to buy cat food. She picked up 3 cans and took them to the check out counter. The girl at the cash register said, "I'm sorry, but we cannot sell you cat food without proof that you have a cat. A lot of old people buy cat food to eat, and the management wants proof that you are buying the cat food for your cat."

The little old lady went home, picked up her cat and brought it back to the store. They sold her the cat food. The next day, she tried to buy 3 cans of dog food. Again the cashier demanded proof that she had a dog, because old people sometimes eat dog food. She went home and brought in her dog. She then got the dog food.

The next day she brought in a box with a hole in the lid. The little old lady asked the cashier to stick her finger in the hole. The cashier said, "No, you might have a snake in there."

The little old lady assured her that there was nothing in the box that would harm her. So the cashier put her finger into the box and pulled it out and told the little old lady, "That smells like crap."

The little old lady said, "It is. Now can I buy three rolls of toilet paper?"

A truck driver was driving along on the freeway. A sign appeared that read "Low bridge ahead." Before he knew it the bridge was right ahead of him, and he couldn't avoid getting stuck under the bridge. Cars became backed up for miles.

Finally, a police car approaches. The police officer climbs out of his car and walks around to the truck driver. The officer puts his hands on his hips and says, "Got stuck huh?"

The truck driver replies, "No, I was delivering this bridge when I happened to run out of gas."

A little guy gets on a plane and sits next to the window. A few minutes later, a big, heavy, strong mean looking, hulking guy plops down in the seat next to him and immediately falls asleep. The little guy starts to feel a little airsick, but he's afraid to wake the big guy up to ask if he can go to the bathroom. He knows he can't climb over him, and so the little guy is sitting there, looking at the big guy, trying to decide what to do. Suddenly, the plane hits an air pocket and an uncontrollable wave of nausea passes through the little guy. He can't hold it in any longer and throws up all over the big guy's chest.

About five minutes later the big guy wakes up, looks down, and sees the vomit all over him. "So," says the little guy, "are you feeling better now?"

A fire starts inside a chemical plant, and the alarm goes out to fire departments for miles around. After crews have been fighting the fire for more than an hour, the company president approaches the fire chief and says, "All our secret formulas are in the vault in the center of the plant. They must be saved! I will give $100,000 to the engine crew that brings them out! Several crews try, but none can get through.

Suddenly a hook and ladder filled with a volunteer squad of men over 65 comes roaring down the road and drives straight into the middle of the inferno. The other firefighters watch, unbelieving, as the old-timers hop off their rig & heroically extinguish the fire, saving the secret formulas.

The company president beams as he walks over to reward the volunteers. "What do you guys plan to do with the money?" he asks after he writes them out a check. The old guy who drove the engine looks him in the eye and answers, "The first thing we're going to do is fix the damn brakes on that truck."

"This is even worse than last year," said the distraught homeowner, "when someone broke in and stole my new security system ... "

A man walked into a Topeka, Kansas Kwik Shop, and asked for all the money in the cash drawer. Apparently, the take was too small, so he tied up the clerk and worked the counter himself for 3 hours until police showed up and grabbed him.

In Ohio, an unidentified man in his late twenties walked into a police station with a 9-inch wire protruding from his forehead and calmly asked officers to give him an X-ray to help him find his brain, which he claimed had been stolen. Police were shocked to learn that the man had drilled a 6-inch deep hole in his skull with a Black & Decker power drill and had stuck the wire in to try and find the "missing" brain.

In Medford, Oregon, a 27-year-old jobless man with an MBA blamed his college degree for his murder of three people. "There are too many business grads out there," he said. "If I had chosen another field, all this may not have happened."

Police in Los Angeles had good luck with a robbery suspect who just couldn't control himself during a lineup. When detectives asked each man in the lineup to repeat the words, "Give me all your money or I'll shoot," the man shouted, "That's not what I said!"

A bank robber in Virginia Beach got a nasty surprise when a dye pack designed to mark stolen money exploded in his Fruit-of-the-Looms. The robber apparently stuffed the loot down the front of his pants as he was running out the door. "He was seen hopping and jumping around," said police spokesman Mike Carey. Police have the man's charred trousers in custody.

A man spoke frantically into the phone, "My wife is pregnant and her contractions are only 2 minutes apart!" "Is this her first child?" the doctor asked. "No, you idiot!" the man shouted. "This is her husband!"

In Modesto, CA, Steven Richard King was arrested for trying to hold up a Bank of America branch without a weapon. King used a thumb and a finger to simulate a gun, but unfortunately, he failed to keep his hand in his pocket.

Three guys, an Iowan, a Missourian and an Illinoisan are out walking along the beach one day. They come across a lantern and a Genie pops out. "I will give you each one wish, that's 3 wishes total," says the Genie.

The Iowan says, "I'm a farmer, my dad was a farmer, and my son will also farm. I want the land to be forever fertile in Iowa." With a blink of the Genie's eye, 'FOOM' the land in Iowa was forever made fertile for farming.

The Missourian was amazed, so he said, "I want a wall around Missouri, so that no one can come into our precious state." Again, with a blink of the Genie's eye, 'POOF' there was a huge wall around Missouri.

The Illinoisan asks, "I'm very curious. Please tell me more about this wall." The Genie explains, "Well, it's about 1500 feet high, 500 feet thick & nothing can get in or out."

The Illinoisan says, "Fill it up with water."

Albert Einstein arrives at a party and introduces himself to the first person he sees and asks, "What is your IQ?" to which the man answers "241." "That is wonderful!" says Albert.

"We will talk about the Grand Unification Theory and the mysteries of the Universe. We will have much to discuss!"

Next Albert introduces himself to a woman and asks, "What is your IQ?" to which the lady answers, "144." "That is great!" responds Albert. "We can discuss politics and current affairs. We will have much to discuss!"

Albert goes to another person and asks, "What is your IQ?" to which the man answers, "51." Albert ponders this for a moment, and then says, "Go Cubs!"

A strong young man at the construction site was bragging that he could outdo anyone in a feat of strength. He made a special case of making fun of Morris, one of the older workmen. After several minutes, Morris had enough.

"Why don't you put your money where your mouth is?" he said. "I will bet a week's wages that I can haul something in a wheelbarrow over to that outbuilding you won't be able to wheel back."

"You're on, old man," the braggart replied. "It's a bet! Let's see what you got."

Morris reached out and grabbed the wheelbarrow by the handles. Then, nodding to the young man, he said, "All right. Get in."

Stupid people should have to wear signs that say: "I'm Stupid", that way you wouldn't rely on them, would you? You wouldn't ask them anything.

It would be like, "Excuse me... oops, never mind didn't see your sign". It's like before my wife and I moved. Our house was full of boxes and there was a U-Haul truck in our driveway. My neighbor comes over and says "Hey, you moving?" "Nope. We just pack our stuff up once or twice a week to see how many boxes it takes. Here's your sign."

A couple of months ago I went fishing with a buddy of mine, we pulled his boat into the dock, I lifted up this big 'ol stringer of bass and this idiot on the dock goes, "Hey, y'all catch all them fish?" "Nope. Talked 'em into giving up. Here's your sign."

I was watching one of those animal shows on the Discovery Channel. There was a guy inventing a shark bite suit. And there's only one way to, test it. "Alright Jimmy, you got that shark suit on, it looks good! They want you to jump into this pool of sharks, and you tell us if it hurts when they bite you." "Well, all right, but hold my sign. I don't wanna lose it."

Last time I had a flat tire, I pulled my truck into one of those side-of-the-road gas stations. The attendant walks out, looks at my truck, looks at me, and I SWEAR he said, "Tire go flat?" I couldn't resist. I said, "Nope. I was driving around and those other three just swelled right up on me. Here's your sign."

We were trying to sell our car about a year ago. A guy came over to the house and drove the car around for about 45 minutes. We get back to the house, he gets out of the car, reaches down and grabs the exhaust pipe, then says, "Darn that's hot! "See? If he'd been wearing his sign, I could have stopped him.

I learned to drive an 18-wheeler in my days of adventure. Wouldn't you know I misjudged the height of a bridge. The truck got stuck and I couldn't get it out no matter how I tried. I radioed in for help and eventually a local cop shows up to take the report. He went through his basic questioning – ok - no problem. I thought sure he was clear of needing a sign - until he asked: "So, is your truck stuck?" I couldn't help myself! I looked at him, looked back at the rig and then back to him and said "No I'm delivering a bridge - here's your sign."

I stayed late at work one night and a co-worker looked at me and said "Are you still here?" I replied, "No. I left about 10 minutes ago. Here's your sign."

Anybody you know need a sign today? Send this to all your friends. The next time someone says something stupid ask them where their sign is.

A city slicker moves to the country & decides he's going to take up farming. He heads to the local co-op & tells the man, "Give me 100 baby chickens." The co-op man complies. A week later the man returns & says, "Give me 200 baby chickens." The co-op man complies.

Again, a week later the man returns. This time he says, "Give me 500 baby chickens." "Wow!" the co-op man replies. "You must really be doing well!"

"Naw," said the man with a sigh. "I'm either planting 'em too deep or too far apart!"

"I never would have married you if I knew how stupid you were!" shouted the woman to her husband!

The husband replied, "You should've known how stupid I was the minute I asked you to marry me!"

An old blacksmith realized he was soon going to quit working so hard. He picked out a strong young man to become his apprentice. The old fellow was crabby and exacting. "Don't ask me a lot of questions," he told the boy. "Just do whatever I tell you to do."

One day the old blacksmith took an iron out of the forge and laid it on the anvil. "Get the hammer over there," he said. "When I nod my head, hit it real good and hard."

Now the town is looking for a new blacksmith....
