

EXCITING NEWS

All my books are now available for download to most electronic readers (like the Kindle and iPad). HEAT is now out of print and I have very few copies of SOLSTICE and CONNECTIONS. With the availability of electronic versions, this makes them once again available and at the very competitive price of $10 per electronic copy.

You who may not know that Kindle and some other electronic readers have an audio function that lets them read any text in a normal (non-robotic) voice. That means eye problems need no longer keep you from enjoying the kind of literature you favor.

Please check my web page (www.paxpublications.com) to see/hear selections from all my books – and stay tuned for an announcement concerning the publication of my 6th book (Recollections) later this calendar year. We hope to hear from you, because these downloads can be shipped immediately.

Sincerely,

Father Jack Frerker and Pax Publications
